

Express

---

The following revision is taken from the dissertation of a Farsi-speaking student of Educational Psychology

Original	Revisions
They also expressed that "the significance of an awareness of style is its potential for enhancing and improving human performance in a variety of contexts".	They also stated that "the significance of an awareness of style is its potential for enhancing and improving human performance in a variety of contexts"
	They also expressed the view that "the significance of an awareness of style is its potential for enhancing and improving human performance in a variety of contexts"

---

15th July 1998

Back to Kibbitzers

Consultant: Tim Johns